About Baltic

Since 2002, Baltic Centre for Contemporary Art has stood as an iconic landmark and much-loved gallery, on the Newcastle Gateshead quayside. We are the largest art gallery in the UK without a permanent collection, free to access and receive over 400,000 visits each year. Baltic boasts four galleries, community spaces, library, sensory room, cafe, shop and rooftop restaurant, and breathtaking views of the Quayside.

We capture the public's imagination with our dynamic mix of awe-inspiring exhibitions, community gatherings, and opportunities to learn. Baltic's daring exhibition programme focusses on new work, platforming local, national and international artists through twelve annual commissions. We have exhibited over 850 artists from 78 nationalities, including world renowned names Martin Boyce, Antony Gormley, Yoko Ono, and Jenny Holzer.

Baltic inspires the next generation of artists by empowering children and young people to experience art, create art and enhance their confidence, skills and wellbeing. We build lifelong engagement, creating clear stepping stones from early engagement with young people via local schools, to supported opportunities and pathways into creative careers. 29% of our visitors are aged below 24, and 41% are Family groups.

Baltic is supported by Arts Council England, Gateshead Council and Northumbria University. We generate earned income through our commercial activities including Baltic Shop, venue hire, donations and catering outlets.
