Arriving at BALTIC

When you arrive at BALTIC, you will enter the building via the main automatic glass doors on Baltic Square.

The entrance will look like this:

When you enter the building you will see a member of BALTIC staff.

They may be wearing a protective face mask or clear visor.

They will welcome you to BALTIC. It is okay to talk to them.

They will ask for your name. There is no need to print out your ticket.

You will then be directed to BALTIC Front Room.

We strongly encourage visitors to wear a face covering when visiting BALTIC.

There will also be hand sanitiser available to use.

BALTIC Front Room

As you approach the entrance of the building you may notice large coloured shapes on the windows that look like this:

This is the BALTIC Front Room picnic and seating area.

Located on the Ground Floor BALTIC Front Room has tables and seating. It looks like this:

This is where the discussion event will happen.

You can choose any seat and sit down.

There will be food and drink available.

You can take food and drink back to your seat.

Other attendees will arrive between 6pm and 6.10pm.

The event will begin at 6.15pm.

The discussion panel will be using microphones. They will start their discussion at 6.15pm.

The panel will chat together until 7.15pm. There will then be a 10 minute break.

After the break, the panel will continue to discuss.

They will also ask if the audience has any questions.

If you have a question you can raise your hand, and the panel will call on you to ask your question. They will then respond.

The event will end at 8pm.

If you want to, you can stay to chat with others after the event.

You will exit the same way as you entered.
